The CEO's message

As an entrepreneur interested in international trade, I have always eagerly sought to explore commercial opportunities, resolve concerns, and meet the demands of foreign companies.

Due to the existing opportunities and capacities for petrochemical and polymeric chemical materials in the Middle East and the significant demand of many industries and companies for such materials, I decided to have an active and constant presence in this field. Then, assisted by several experienced businessmen and merchants, we took the steps to establish the group by employing skillful and competent specialists to effectively and conveniently meet the needs of international companies across the world by relying on the personnel's experiences and skills and the extensive communication network that had been built in the past. We constantly endeavor to act according to our customers' ever-changing needs and demands within the current international trade atmosphere with its rapid and diverse transformations. The satisfaction and trust of our estimable customers have always been significant and vital points in our career

What distinguishes us from others?

- » Signing collaboration contracts with more than 20 giant and well-known petrochemical companies in the Middle East
- » Running international offices to maintain better accessibility and expand commercial connections
- » Offering the capability to supply products in high volumes
- » Offering competitive prices due to the high volume of purchases from producers
- » Introducing flexibility in cargo delivery methods according to customers' preferences
- » Introducing flexibility in payment options

Customers' concerns:

In international trade, customers face concerns and risks like product quality, capital security, on-time product delivery, and the delivery of intact products – to name but a few. Therefore, we have decided to provide services to our customers to cover an extensive variety of risks and resolve their concerns.

Our Services:

- » Sourcing
- » Conducting every stage of purchase negotiations
- » Conducting and following up on all matters about internal and international transportation
- » Obtaining necessary export licenses
- » Issuing and obtaining cargo shipping insurance
- » Performing customs clearance and delivery in the customer's desired location
- » Warehousing
- » Providing inspection services on customer demand
- » Providing consulting services
